In Memoriam

In memory of Katherine Olive Mehus, (1945-1954), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mehus of Grenora.

Kathy was highly thought of and loved by the student body, and especially by the graduating class of nineteen hundred sixty-three, of which she was a member. May God bless her memory.

Dedication

We, the class of nineteen hundred sixty-two, dedicate this annual to Mr. Rabine in appreciation for all his help and patience with us.

Our superintendent, Mr. Rabine, is loved and respected by the entire student body of Grenora School.

A Tribute to Mr. Rabine

On May 16, the halls of G.H.S. were saddened by the word of Mr. Rabine's death.

He came here when we were Freshmen and saw us through high school. He was our Senior Class Advisor.

The student body of Grenora has decided to purchase a new steel desk and chair in memory of Mr. Rabine.

Funeral services for George H. Rabine, 55, superintendent of schools here for the past four years, were held May 18, at St. Olaf Lutheran Church. Children attended a morning service and adults a second service in the afternoon. Officiating were Rev. Don Gaarder of Grenora and Rev. Charles Hogan of Williston. Burial will be in the Grenora Cemetery.

Mr. Rabine, who died Wednesday in a Williston hospital, was born Nov. 20, 1906, at Hamilton, N. D. He grew up there and was graduated from Hamilton High School. He attended Jamestown College, Dickinson State Teachers College, Sioux Falls College in South Dakota, and the University of North Dakota.

He married the former Dolly Catract at Norma on June 27, 1929. Prior to his assignment at Grenora, he was a superintendent of schools at Lansford, Portal, Grace City, Aneta, and Mapleton. He had been teaching since 1929.

Survivors are his widow; two sons, Edwin of Melbourne, Fla. and Eugene of Fort Worth, Tex.; one daughter, Ramona, of Fort Worth; and one brother, the Rev. E. F. Rabine, Greenville, South Carolina.
